

FOOD SAFETY WORKSHOPS

A New Approach to Deal with Animal Intrusion

Learn how the recent changes to the Food Safety Practices
Will Impact Your Farming Operations

These workshops will focus on changes which shift risk assessment from animals of significant risk to assessing and determining low risks and high risks associated with animal hazards and fecal matter in and around growing areas.

Individuals with Designated Training Responsibilities Should Attend:

Supervisors, Foremen, Food Safety Coordinators, Trainers and others overseeing daily food safety practices in the field
