

An Iconic Summer Convention Awaits

Ventura, California

July 16-19, 2014

NOA's Summer Convention goes beyond having an attractive beachside location in Ventura, California. It promises to be the right mix of timely information, networking, and relaxing.

In three days, you'll hear from experts to help you better understand and cope with emerging policies and persistent crop threats. Learn how NOA's legislative efforts are protecting producers from mounting regulatory pressure regarding food safety, seasonal worker availability, and health care. Find out how public relation activities are creating awareness and keeping consumers 'in-the-know' about all things onion.

Registration & Hotel Info

Convention Details and Registration forms:

<http://www.onions-usa.org/members/noaconventions>

Register online or send by mail by June 26, 2014

Crowne Plaza Ventura Beach is the convention hotel. Ocean view rooms are available at a discounted group rate of $109 for a King and $129 for a Queen (two beds) per night.

Reserve Hotel Room(s) EARLY!!

1-805-648-2100 OR <http://bit.ly/PQVtiR>.

Rooms may not be available at these rates after June 26, 2014.

Things to Do & See

Spend a few extra days discovering all this idyllic destination has to offer.

Delve into California history at adobes and museums.

Along the Ventura County

Wine Trail, meet local winemakers and chefs. Shop for great finds in the downtown boutiques or Harbor Village. Explore sea caves by kayak at Channel Islands National Park –eleven miles offshore.

See more at: <http://www.ventura-usa.com/things-to-do/>